YOU ARE INVITED

2011 Incolink Foundation Fund Research Grants and Scholarships

To further optimise the health and wellbeing of workers in the building and construction industry, the Incolink Foundation Fund (IFF) seeks to expand its research evidence base. With this in mind the IFF is pleased to announce the call for applications for the inaugural IFF Research Grants and Scholarship 2012.

The IFF Research Grants and Scholarships are focused on the health and wellbeing of workers and their families in the Victorian commercial building and construction industry. IFF Research Grants and Scholarships are open to both individuals and organisations, and funding may be used to develop a research project in collaboration with the IFF.

How to apply?

The Application Form and Terms and Conditions can be downloaded from www.iff.org.au

The priority areas for the IFF Research Grants and Scholarships 2012 funding round are workplace focused and include:

- Men's health and wellbeing
- Primary prevention and/or health promotion

Applicants may apply for a research grant or scholarship of up to $20,000 per year per project. Key dates:

- IFF Grants and Scholarships 2012
Applications open: 14 September 2011
- IFF Grants and Scholarships 2012
Applications close: 5pm, 28 October 2011

Refer to the IFF
Research Grants and Scholarships
Terms and Conditions for more information.

The 2011 Incolink Foundation Fund Research Grants and Scholarships are a tribute to the late Incolink Board Chairman, David Murden AM, to continue and support his vision.

Mr David Murden AM passed away on Thursday 2 June 2011. David served as Independent Chairman on the Board of Incolink from 1997, and more recently as Chairman of the Incolink Foundation Fund which was established in 2008.
