

Learn about philanthropy in Australia

Use these digital tools to help answer questions like: Who is funding a particular issue? Or, how much money is serving specific populations in your region?

Explore the Foundation Maps: Australia funding map to see who is funding what and where across the country.

Use the Philanthropic Funding in Australia Dashboard to get a snapshot of Australian institutional philanthropy.

To learn more:
Visit philanthropy.org.au/how-to-give/Foundation-Maps-Australia or email supriya.kumar@candid.org

But these tools are only as useful as you make them! By uploading your grants data, they can continue to become a powerful source of accurate, up-to-date information to help funders and not-for-profits in Australia.

Why share your grants data?

Take control of your story

No one knows your grantmaking better than you. Tell your story, your way.

It's good for the sector

Join the community of funders sharing their data to ensure the field has the best information to act on.

It's easy

Use our spreadsheet template to add your grants data.
