

Time	Session
8:00am	Registration Desk Opens
10am - 1pm	PAF 101 – the nuts and bolts of running a PAF This session will cover the key activities and requirements to effectively run a Private Ancillary Fund	David Ward - Technical Director, Australian Philanthropic Services
10am - 1pm	Indirect costs - what does it take to Pay What it Takes? Building on the the output of this year's PWIT workshops, we will continue to explore this approach to funding indirect costs, looking in particular at how best to present it, and get it across the line at	Charlotte Siddle - Executive Director, the Siddle Family Foundation Jo Taylor - Chair, Paying What It Takes Coalition Kirsty Albion - Executive Director, Australian Progress Genevieve Timmons - Philanthropic Executive, Industry Fellow, CSI Swinburne , Senior Associate, Paul Ramsay Foundation Matt Knopp - Capability Lead, Paul Ramsay Foundation
10am - 1pm	Endowments for Impact - aligning the capital base with responsible investing practices and Professional development for trustees, directors and senior management of trusts & foundations to examine the case for change alongside the legal and practical considerations involved in portfolio	Simon Lewis - Partner, GoodWolf Claire Hanratty - Director, GoodWolf Seak-King Huang - Partner, Milner & Huang Karen Ng - Director - Multi-Asset Investments, Brightlight Sara Parrott - CEO, Hand Heart Pocket the Charity of Freemasons Queensland Maree Sidey - CEO, Australian Communities Foundation Ben Smith - Lead, Impact Investing, Paul Ramsay Foundation
10am - 1pm	Funding Social Enterprise for Systems Change Social enterprise can help set up sustainable systems change in our communities through the provision of goods and services and providing access to opportunities for training and employment.	Matthew Allen - Senior Research Assistant, The Yunus Centre, Griffith University Matt Knopp - Capability Lead, Paul Ramsay Foundation Sally McGeoch - Senior Advisor, Westpac Foundation Jess Moore - CEO, Social Enterprise Australia Belinda Morrissey - CEO, English Family Foundation & Chair, Social Enterprise Australia Bec Scott - Co-Founder and CEO, STREAT Luke Terry - Co-Founder and CEO, White Box Enterprises Dr Sharon Zivkovic - Co-Founder, Wicked Lab , Founder, Community Capacity Builders
10am - 1pm	Evaluating for Impact Liz Gillies, CEO of Menzies Foundation, and her panellists take a deep dive into what it means to develop a best practice approach and create a lasting impact for grantmakers, and not-for-profits in philanthropy. As the lead author in Philanthropy: Toward a Better Practice Model , recognises that philanthropy is an important catalyst for social change and plays a compelling role in supporting communities and mitigating disadvantages. Evolving the ideas and strategies from this, Liz's masterclass encapsulates the notion of opportunity for change that will build towards better practice models and increased impact of Australian philanthropy.	Dr Kerry Elliott - Senior Researcher, Australian Council for Education Research Liz Gillies - CEO, Menzies Foundation Kathryn Greiner AO – Director, Gabane, Paul Ramsay Foundation, Menzies Foundation Claire Hanratty - Director, GoodWolf Anna Powell - CEO, Collaboration for Impact Sarah Jenkins - Strategic Communication Manager, Menzies Foundation Chris Marmo - Co-Founder & CEO, Paper Giants Sam Richards - Managing Director, Brightlight Impact Advisory
2pm - 5pm	Developing a corporate giving strategy that delivers for all stakeholders In today's world, it's no longer acceptable to focus on shareholder return alone, stakeholders are now king, and all their needs must be embraced. More businesses are recognising that they must develop giving strategies that align with their purpose and values, but navigating how to set this up, measure its impact and deliver more broadly against a company's Sustainable Development Goals can be challenging. In this Masterclass we will look at each of these stages, from where to start to what it can deliver, to address the needs of all stakeholders.	Olivia Clark-Moffatt - Director of Engagement, Australian Community Foundations Laura Cochrane - Head of Strategic Giving, National Australia Bank (NAB) Josh Kahn - Sustainability Consultant, Corporate Citizenship Kylie Porter - Executive Director, UN Global Compact Network Australia Simon Robinson - Director - Corporate Citizenship

2pm - 5pm	Influencing Government: A Masterclass in government relations and funding advocacy How does government and advocacy work? - Engaging with the government to achieve social change.	Larissa Baldwin - Chief Campaigns Officer, GetUp Olivia Greenwell - Director of Communications and Engagement, Australian Council of Social Service (ACOSS) Damian Griffis - CEO, First Peoples Disability Network Harriet McCallum - Executive Officer, Mannifera Sam Rosevear - Executive Director - Policy, Government Relations and Research, Philanthropy Australia Malinda Wink - Global Director, Good Pitch Saffron Zomer - Founder and Director, Australian Democracy Network
2pm - 5pm	Building our Cultural Intelligence The conversation about how philanthropy can walk alongside First Nations people is not a new one, but how can we translate talk into meaningful action, to become allies and pick up the pace on delivering impact. While it is necessary to obtain some Cultural Awareness/Safety/Intelligence training as a foundation for engagement with First Nations peoples, there is work to be done beyond to build increased capability. In this Masterclass, we will not delve into the basic elements of Cultural Awareness/Safety/Intelligence training, but instead, explore how to improve our understanding of applied awareness of power as it relates to building cultural intelligence.	Mark Yettica-Paulson - Deep Collaboration Lead, Collaboration for Impact, Chief Director, Super Native Unlimited
2pm - 5pm	What does contemporary grantmaking look like and how do you operationalise it? In this Masterclass, Genevieve will cover the fundamentals of effective structured giving in 2022, drawing on more than three decades of deep and wide experience in the changing landscape of philanthropy in Australia and across the world. This class is designed for people seeking professional development in contemporary philanthropic grantmaking, whether as individuals or as part of an organisation. Content will focus on current philanthropic practices and challenges, including analysis and reflection on past giving strategies that work or no longer serve. This is an interactive workshop offering tools, examples to harness practical applications, and a set of guiding principles, all ensuring optimal impact and efficiency in structured giving today. As an Industry Partner with the Centre for Social Impact at Swinburne University, and a Senior Associate at the Paul Ramsay Foundation, Genevieve is committed to contemporary, future focused strategies for structured philanthropic giving.	Genevieve Timmons - Philanthropic Executive, Industry Fellow, CSI Swinburne, Senior Associate, Paul Ramsay Foundation Anna Marinovich - Partnerships Officer, Paul Ramsay Foundation
2pm - 5pm	What does 'applying a lens' to your program design and funding really mean, and to what end? We often hear the term 'apply a lens to your giving', but what does that actually mean in the context of funding and program design? With our panel of experts, we are deep diving into various lenses, including LGBTIQ+, climate, gender and disability and their undoubtable intersectionality. This masterclass will challenge the current rhetoric and ask how can we maximise philanthropy's involvement to strengthen our communities.	Daisy Barham - Environmental Philanthropy Manager, Australian Environmental Grantmakers Network Dr Catherine Brown OAM - CEO, Lord Mayor's Charitable Foundation, Chair, the Australian Environmental Grantmakers Network Madison de Rozario - Paralympic Athlete Georgia Mathews - Director of Philanthropy, Australian Communities Foundation Julie Reilly OAM - CEO, Australians Investing in Women Dr Victor Sojo - Senior Lecturer in Leadership, University of Melbourne Stacey Thomas - CEO, The Wyatt Foundation