

Terms and Conditions:

Philanthropy Australia Free Membership Trial for PAFs and sub funds of PuAFs

1. Trial membership commences from the date of registration to the trial and ceases at the conclusion of six months. At the conclusion of the six-month trial, participants can choose to upgrade to paid Philanthropy Australia membership, remain on our mailing list for future updates or unsubscribe.
2. Trial membership can be cancelled by the participant at any time during the six-month period.
3. Trial membership benefits are only as outlined below:
 - Access to two Peer Networks *limited to 2 members of your organisation per event
 - Access to two Webinars *limited to 2 members of your organisation per event
 - Access to our online members portal
 - Access to discounted tickets to specific Philanthropy Australia events including Conference and Summit
4. Benefits are available to staff, families and trustees of PAFs and sub funds of PuAFs.
5. Other Philanthropy Australia benefits such as voting rights, New Gen activities, study tours are not included in this offering.
6. Trial participants can choose to upgrade to paid membership at any stage of the six-month trial period and obtain full member benefits upon payment of their invoice.
7. Trial participants, upon transition to paid membership, must comply with Philanthropy Australia's membership policy. Philanthropy Australia's privacy policy can be found here.
8. Ex-members of Philanthropy Australia cannot participate in this trial.